2025 REPORT FROM TENDERLOVE ORPHANAGE, AWKA, ANAMBRA STATE.

To: The President and Esteemed Members of Nigerian Women of Georgia (NWAG), USA

Subject: DETAILED REPORT ON THE UTILIZATION OF NWAG'S 2025 FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO TENDERLOVE ORPHANAGE HOME

Dear President and Esteemed Members of Nigerian Women of Georgia (NWAG), Warm greetings and heartfelt appreciation from the management, staff, and children of Tenderlove Orphanage Home, Awka, Anambra State, Nigeria.
It is with profound gratitude, humility, and a deep sense of responsibility that we write to you to present a detailed report on the utilization of the financial support you graciously extended to Tenderlove Orphanage Home in 2025. We sincerely apologize for the delay in submitting this report and appreciate your patience, understanding, and continued commitment to the welfare of the children under our care.

1. OUR PROFOUND GRATITUDE FOR OVER TEN YEARS OF UNWAVERING SUPPORT

First and foremost, we wish to express our deepest appreciation to the Nigerian Women of Georgia for your remarkable generosity, compassion, and unwavering commitment to Tenderlove Orphanage Home for over ten years.
Since the demise of our beloved founder and boss, Late Chief Mrs. Uzo Obi Okoli, your organization has remained a dependable source of encouragement and support to us. Your continued sponsorship has been instrumental in sustaining the vision and mission of Tenderlove Orphanage Home, particularly our commitment to providing vulnerable and orphaned children with shelter, food, education, care, and the opportunity to build meaningful futures.
Your support over these years represents much more than financial assistance. It is a demonstration of love, humanity, and faith in the future of children who depend on the kindness of others. Through your generosity, you have helped us continue the work of caring for these children, even in the face of challenges that might otherwise have threatened our ability to continue.
We recognize that such consistency and commitment are not easily sustained. We therefore do not take your kindness for granted. Every contribution you make is a reminder that there are people, even thousands of miles away, who care deeply about the well-being of our children.
On behalf of our management, staff, and all the children of Tenderlove Orphanage Home, we say a resounding THANK YOU, NWAG! May God continue to bless every member of your organization for keeping this vision alive.

2. EXPLANATION FOR THE LATE SUBMISSION OF THE 2025 REPORT

We consider it important to explain the circumstances that contributed to the delay in presenting this report.

Following the demise of our founder, Late Chief Mrs. Uzo Obi Okoli, Tenderlove Orphanage Home encountered a significant and unexpected challenge concerning the property that had housed the orphanage and the children under our care.

The building that served as the children's home was sold by the children of Late Chief Mrs. Uzo Obi Okoli. This development left the orphanage facing the difficult task of relocating the children and making alternative arrangements for their accommodation and continued welfare.

The situation was particularly distressing because the relocation affected not just a building but the stability and sense of security of the many children who regarded the home as their place of safety. We were confronted with the urgent responsibility of finding alternative accommodation, reorganizing our operations, and ensuring that the children's daily needs, education, feeding, and general welfare were not neglected.

We were deeply disappointed by the circumstances surrounding the sale, particularly the lack of adequate consideration for the immediate welfare of the children who depended on the property for shelter. From our perspective, the decision did not sufficiently reflect the legacy of care and compassion associated with our late founder's work.

Nevertheless, despite these challenges, we remained determined not to abandon the children or allow the difficulties to bring an end to the vision of Tenderlove Orphanage Home.

The process of relocation, coupled with the need to reorganize our operations and secure the children's continued welfare, placed considerable demands on our time and resources. These circumstances contributed significantly to the delay in preparing and submitting the 2025 report.

We sincerely regret this delay and appreciate your understanding. We also wish to reassure NWAG that the delay in reporting does not mean that your financial support was neglected or diverted from its intended purpose. Rather, we continued to invest in sustainable activities that help us meet the needs of the children and preserve the future of the orphanage.

3. UTILIZATION OF NWAG'S 2025 FINANCIAL SUPPORT

We are pleased to inform you that the financial support received from NWAG in 2025 remained committed to the development and expansion of our agricultural and livestock projects.

In our determination to build a more sustainable future for Tenderlove Orphanage Home, we have continued to embrace agriculture as an important means of supporting the daily needs of the children. We believe that developing our own food production and livestock farming will help reduce our dependence on external assistance while creating a more reliable source of food and income.

With this objective in mind, the funds supported the expansion of our agricultural activities, including the acquisition of additional hectares of farmland for crop cultivation.

On the expanded farmland, we cultivated cassava, maize, tomatoes, and other vegetables. These crops serve two important purposes: providing food for the children and generating income through the sale of surplus produce.

Cassava and maize are particularly important because they can contribute significantly to our food supply. Tomatoes and other vegetables also help diversify the children's meals while providing produce that can be sold commercially when available in excess of our immediate needs.

Expanding our farmland has strengthened our ability to produce food, improve our planning, and work toward greater self-reliance. Although farming requires considerable effort, patience, and ongoing investment, we are encouraged by the opportunities it provides for the long-term sustainability of the home.

We are grateful that your support has enabled us to continue developing this approach rather than relying exclusively on donations to meet every need.

4. UPGRADE AND EXPANSION OF OUR LIVESTOCK AND POULTRY FARMING

In addition to crop cultivation, part of our agricultural development efforts has focused on upgrading and expanding our livestock, poultry, and fishery activities.
Our farming operations include the rearing of goats, chickens, turkeys, ducks, guinea fowls, and rabbits, alongside our fishery project.
These activities form an important part of our broader strategy to strengthen the financial and nutritional foundation of Tenderlove Orphanage Home.
The livestock and poultry projects provide opportunities to supply food for the children while also producing animals, eggs, fish, and other farm products for commercial purposes, as applicable to each part of the operation.
By combining crop farming with livestock and fish production, we are developing a more diversified agricultural system. This enables us to draw on different sources of food and potential income instead of depending on a single activity.
The produce from these farms contributes to feeding the children, while sales from available surplus products help generate funds to support essential expenses. These include educational needs, food supplies, healthcare, clothing, and other day-to-day requirements.
Our intention is to continue improving the productivity and management of these projects so that they can contribute more effectively to the upkeep of the home.
We are also learning valuable lessons about farm management, planning, and responsible resource utilization. Your assistance has helped us move forward with a practical approach that combines caring for the children with building a more sustainable future for the institution.

5. HOW AGRICULTURE SUPPORTS THE EDUCATION AND WELFARE OF OUR CHILDREN

One of the most important benefits of our agricultural and livestock projects is their contribution to the education and welfare of the children.
At Tenderlove Orphanage Home, we believe that every child deserves access to education, adequate nutrition, a safe environment, and the opportunity to develop into a responsible and independent adult.
Presently, we have 74 children under our care. Meeting the needs of this number of children requires substantial and consistent resources, especially in the areas of feeding, education, accommodation, clothing, healthcare, and general upkeep.
We are particularly proud that 34 of our children are currently in school, including four who are pursuing their university education and five who are attending secondary school at the boarding-school level.
Their educational progress gives us hope and strengthens our determination to continue providing the support they need to succeed.
The proceeds generated from our agricultural activities form part of the resources we use to sustain the education of these children. Revenue from farm sales helps us meet some of the recurring costs associated with keeping them in school, while our own food production helps ease the burden of feeding the children.
We understand that education is an investment in the future. By supporting these children through school, we are helping them acquire the knowledge, skills, and confidence they need to become self-reliant and contribute positively to society.

We also hope that our agricultural projects will continue to grow to the point where they can provide more consistent support for the children's educational expenses and other essential needs.
For us, the success of these projects is not measured solely by the size of our farmland or the number of animals we rear. It is also measured by the children who remain in school, the meals we can provide, and the opportunities we can create for those who have already experienced the hardship of losing parental care.
We therefore regard NWAG's support as an investment in the lives, dignity, and future of these children.

6. OUR PRESENT LOCATION AND CONTINUED COMMITMENT

We are determined to preserve the vision of our late founder, Chief Mrs. Uzo Obi Okoli, by ensuring that Tenderlove Orphanage Home continues to serve the children who depend on us.

7. APPRECIATION FOR TEACHING US TO FISH

Dear members of NWAG, we would like to express a special word of appreciation for the practical lesson your support has helped us embrace: teaching us how to fish rather than simply giving us fish.
Your generosity has encouraged us to look beyond immediate assistance and invest in activities that can sustain the home over time.
Through agriculture, livestock farming, poultry, and fishery, we are gradually building the knowledge, experience, and capacity needed to support more of our children's needs through our own efforts.
We are expanding our agricultural activities, acquiring more knowledge, and learning how to improve our farming and livestock operations. Each step forward strengthens our determination to become more self-sufficient while remaining open to the assistance and guidance of well-meaning individuals and organizations.
We know that there is still much work to be done. Agricultural activities require continued investment, proper management, and patience. Nevertheless, we are encouraged by the progress we have made and remain committed to improving our operations for the benefit of the children.
Your contribution has therefore provided more than financial relief. It has helped reinforce a sustainable approach to caring for vulnerable children and preparing the institution for the future.
For this, we remain sincerely grateful.
